2. [REDACTED] asked if I knew that he was to entertain the [REDACTED] at his home. I told him that I had been informed of this, and that someone from [REDACTED] would be getting in touch with him. He is quite anxious to help in any way he can in eliciting information during the course of the visit of the [REDACTED] 25X1A6a

3. I also used this occasion to present to him our tentative plans for the production of an "Explorers' Atlas" utilizing the [REDACTED] I explained that we had tentative agreement from ONR for financial support in the compilation phase of the project, which would include the selection of photos, their annotation, and the construction of maps on which the photographic image would be located. I pointed out that one of the problems yet to be resolved was the matter of production of such an atlas and the cost involved. I asked him whether or not the AGS would be interested in producing and selling such a piece of work. He was very interested and gave the tentative answer of "Yes" with further consideration to be given when the specifics of the project are determined. I told him that I would get in touch with him, probably in September, after the project has been firmed up in sufficient detail to talk specifically about the production phase. 25X1A5a1
